Dear Bill:

As requested, the appropriate Agency officials have looked once again at the 19 July 1965 Executive Session transcript which you forwarded with your letter of 26 July 1980.

All red highlighted portions should be deleted from any version of the transcript provided to the public since they contain information which still warrants classification. All other portions of the transcript can be released.

If you have any further questions regarding our review of this transcript, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]
